Passing on the Faith — Sunday Talk Series

Between 1978 and 1989 in Still River and Bolton, Massachusetts, Brother Francis gave some of his most inspiring lectures to a large audience every Sunday after Mass. Usually the talks were a commentary on the scriptural readings for that Sunday's Mass, but sometimes he would delve into other aspects about the liturgical year, Church history, or current events in the Church. At other times he would spontaneously go off on a fascinating tangent in response to an important question that had been raised. For many, who had been long accustomed to a paltry diet of milquetoast Catholicism, these robust and erudite presentations were like an adrenaline shot. They were unapologetically Catholic, genuine, relaxed, and unforgettable. What is offered here is a cornucopia of Catholic wisdom that will remain with you for life. In the hope that you will thoroughly enjoy these talks, we are offering you the first set of talks (MP3 CD only) at no charge. Once you have listened to the set, if you do not choose to purchase more, then just return them. If you do choose to purchase any other sets, then you may keep the first set absolutely free as a gift.

The Life and Teachings of Father Feeney

These are reflections of Brother Francis about his mentor, Father Feeney, as well as a study of the doctrinal issue that made him famous. Papal encyclicals touching on the dogma are analyzed as is Father's relationship with other prominent churchmen of his day, such as Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, Father Francis J. Connell, Msgr. Joseph Fenton of Catholic University, and Father Avery Dulles, S.J. Brother speaks of the early days of the Center and the early writings of Father Feeney. What emerges is a true picture of the dedicated and loving character of an extremely gifted priest who was persecuted for refusing to compromise the Faith in his preaching; a priest who, despite all of the injustices heaped upon him, remained a loyal but uncompromising son of the Church until his death on January 30, 1978. Many who have listened to this series think it the best exposition of Father's doctrine available in audio.
